READING PROGRAM

You are invited to participate in this Free Digital Library Program. This program is offered to assist the participant to honor God in all areas of their lives and service in Christ.

We hope to inspire the participant in fulfilling the Great Commission. Build up a Basic Digital Library for Biblical Restoration and Revival.

REQUIREMENTS:

It should be a Two – Page Report apart from the Cover Page. Book reports need to include the following:

1. State the details of the book in the introduction of your report i.e. author, date, title and main idea of the book. The main idea of the book should be summarized in one or two sentences.
2. Provide a brief summary of the book. These paragraphs should correspond with the summary provided in your Introduction.
3. Clearly state what you learned from the book.
4. Indicate where you strongly agree, or disagree, with the book.
5. Demonstrate how the content of the book applies to your life, church, ministry, family, society, etc.

Form and Style Requirements for all Book Reports:

- Every assignment should include a cover page.
- All assignments should be typed out in Times New Romans, 12-font, 1,15-line spacing, narrow margins.
- All references to God, any Member of the Trinity, the Lord, Saviour, Gospel, the Bible, the Church universal, the Kingdom of God and Heaven should begin with a capital letter. This includes synonyms, metaphors, pronouns and descriptions of God and the Bible such as the Hand of the Lord or the Word of God.
- All Bible references should be written out in full. For example, Matthew should not be shortened as “Matt”. Psalms should not be shortened as “Psa.”
- Scripture citations should be in bold and italics.
- Pages must be numbered.
- All assignments must be spell-checked before submission.

We are confident that you will find all these books inspiring and challenging. We trust that you will find them useful in your studies and service.

Those who adequately complete book reports on all five books will receive a Certificate of Recognition.

In His service,
Jonathan Soeker
